Book Title: Love That Dog

Author: Sharon Creech

Once I started to read the book "Love that dog," I read that book so much to where I am going to tell you about the book. The author of the book is Sharon Creech. She was the winner of the Newbery Medal for Walk Two Moons. In the back of the book, there are poems like Love that Boy and dog. There is a lot of other things in that book.

In the book Love that dog, something sad happens. In the book, it says that Jack's dog got ran over!!! I know this because on page 10, it says "And I saw Sky going after the ball wag-wag-wagging his tail and I called him Sky! Sky! and he turned his head but it was to late because the blue car blue car splattered with mud hit Sky." The dogs name was Sky. Jack was so upset for that day.

In my opinion, I think the book "Love that dog" is lovely. I think that because in the book, it talks about how Jack thought it was for girls only. But then, once he found these authors like Walter Dean Myers, he loved poetry. This book can inspire many kids and some grownups. I give the book a five star rating. I say that because the theme in the book is something that you can use in real life.
