

Sec. 1. PURPOSE.

As a not-for-profit organization organized under the laws of the State of Texas and exempt as a public charity under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, IPS Enterprises, Inc. (“IPS”) encourages the solicitation and acceptance of gifts for purposes that will assist IPS to further and fulfill its mission.

The purpose of this Policy is to govern the acceptance of gifts by IPS and to provide guidance to the Board, the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), and prospective donors when making gifts to IPS. The provisions of this Policy shall apply to all gifts received by IPS for any of its schools, programs or services, and to the acceptance of gifts made to IPS or for the benefit of any of its programs. This policy shall also track the policies of IDEA Public Schools subject to Board differentiation contained herein or otherwise approved by the IPS Board.

Sec. 2. RESTRICTIONS ON GIFTS.

IPS will accept unrestricted gifts provided that such gifts are consistent with IPS’s charitable and educational mission, purposes, and priorities. IPS will not accept gifts that are too restrictive in purpose. Gifts that are too restrictive are those that violate the charitable and educational trust of IPS, or that are accompanied by an improper economic benefit to the donor or vest the donor with inappropriate control or influence. The Board shall make all final decisions on the restrictive nature of a gift and its acceptance or refusal.

Sec. 3. GIFT ACCEPTANCE COMMITTEE.

The Board may establish a Gift Acceptance Committee of the Board to review gifts made to IPS and to carry out certain terms of this Policy. The Gift Acceptance Committee may be charged with the responsibility of reviewing all gifts made or proposed to be made to IPS, properly reviewing those gifts, and making recommendations to the Board on gift acceptance and related issues.

Sec. 4. USE OF LEGAL COUNSEL AND OTHER PROFESSIONAL ASSISTANCE.

IPS shall seek the advice of legal counsel or other professional advisors (such as an accountant, financial advisor or professional money manager) when appropriate and as recommended in this Policy relating to the acceptance of certain types of gifts. Generally, IPS shall seek the advice of legal counsel in all matters pertaining to the acceptance of any gift which may have adverse legal, ethical (including a potential conflict of interest), or other consequence of concern to IPS.

All prospective donors shall be urged and encouraged by IPS to seek and secure the assistance of independent legal, tax and financial advisors in matters relating to their gifts and the resulting tax and estate planning implications. IPS shall not pay the legal fees or any professional fees of the donor in connection with a gift to IPS. IPS shall not provide any opinion, statement or recommendation to the donor as to the tax deductibility of the gift or as to any tax consequences or tax implications of the gift that may affect the donor.

It shall be the responsibility of the donor to secure an appraisal of property where required. The donor shall pay any fees associated with securing such appraisal.

3. Securities: Both publicly traded securities and marketable closely held securities are acceptable upon review by Board and/or the Gift Acceptance Committee and legal counsel. Review and recommendation by an outside financial professional or money manager may be sought prior to acceptance of the gift. Marketable securities may be transferred to an account maintained at one or more brokerage firms or delivered physically with the transferor’s signature or stock power attached. As a general rule, IPS shall promptly sell all securities upon receipt.
4. Closely Held Securities; Other Intangibles: IPS shall not accept securities and other intangible assets (such as interests in LLPs and LLCs or other ownership forms) that may not be sold or transferred, that have no value, are not marketable, or that may generate additional liability or undesirable tax or other consequences for IPS. Review and recommendation by legal counsel and/or a financial professional should be sought before making a final decision on acceptance of closely held securities or other intangibles as a gift.
5. Tangible Personal Property: Gifts of tangible personal property are often called “in-kind” gifts and include gifts such as supplies, equipment, furniture, printed materials, books, food, software, motor vehicles and artwork. Gifts of tangible personal property will be examined as follows:

- a) Will the property be used by IPS in furtherance of its mission?
- b) Is the property marketable?
- c) Are there restrictions on the use, display or disposition of the property?
- d) Are there carrying costs of the property?

IPS shall not value or offer to value the property. The donor shall sign a statement of ownership and disclose any liens on the property. IPS shall not accept any property subject to a restriction on its ability to use, sell or otherwise dispose of the property as it deems necessary.

6. Life Insurance Policy/Beneficiary Designation: IPS may accept the gift of a life insurance policy, provided IPS is named as both the owner of the policy and irrevocable beneficiary of the policy prior to acceptance of the gift. Beneficiary designations shall not be recorded as gifts to IPS unless and until the gift is irrevocable. Where the gift is irrevocable, but is not due until a future date, the present value of that gift may be recorded at the time the gift becomes irrevocable. If the policy is not fully paid-up and the donor does not continue to make gifts to cover premium payments on the policy, IPS shall have the right to continue to pay the premiums, convert the policy to paid-up insurance, surrender the policy for its current cash value, or otherwise make use of its value.
7. Real Estate. IPS will not accept any real estate subject to a restriction on IPS's ability to use, sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with the property as it deems necessary. Prior to the acceptance of real estate, IPS shall require an initial environmental review of the property by a qualified environmental review firm to ensure that the property has no environmental damage or liabilities. In the event that the initial review reveals a potential problem or concern, the organization may retain a qualified environmental review firm to conduct an environmental audit. The cost of the environmental review and any environmental audit shall be the expense of the donor. Appraisal costs are the responsibility of the donor.

A title report or abstract of title shall be obtained by IPS prior to the acceptance of the real property gift. Criteria for acceptance of the property shall include:

- a) A review of a complete profile of the property, including the title report and environmental review or audit, inspection reports, the deed, any encumbrances, leases, and tax bills.
- b) A review of the carrying costs, sale and holding costs of the property, such as insurance, property taxes, mortgages, notes, etc.

10. Charitable Lead Trusts: IPS may accept designation as income beneficiary of a charitable lead trust upon review by the Board and/or the Gift Acceptance Committee and legal counsel. IPS will not accept appointment as trustee of a charitable remainder trust.
11. Retirement Plan Beneficiary Designations: Donors and supporters of IPS are encouraged to name IPS as a beneficiary of a retirement plan.
