DEFINITIONS:

Paid Holidays are days in which employees are paid to be off. However, manager discretion will be used in determining the need for employees to work during scheduled holidays. In the event an exempt employee must work during a scheduled paid holiday, no additional compensation will be paid above the normal salary. In the event a non-exempt employee must work during a scheduled paid holiday, s/he will be paid at their normal hourly rate or overtime rate, if applicable.

Non-Work Days are days in which employees are not scheduled to work.
