

Move this World: Family Edition

What is Move this World?

Move This World provides Social Emotional Learning (SEL) with the use of interactive videos, movement, and creative expression to help students, educators and families develop emotional intelligence skills for long-term wellbeing. Schools at IDEA Public Schools, implement Move This World's curriculum seamlessly into their day with short evidence-based videos that introduce a common language and methods for expressing emotion. Move This World's programs lead to deeper self awareness, stronger relationships, effective communication and a culture of safety and support, now as families, you can utilize the program too!
